Shed a from every belch of the cannon and roar of muskets made to achieve your liberty, when sorrow like a furnace blast was sinking over the land piercing with sadness every kindred heart; and if then you forget that President Lincoln died at the murderous instigation of your freedom and independence, you will be undeserving of your liberty. But no man who has a heart or soul in his composition can forget. We want liberty in the country for the white man and liberty for the black man. We wish for no liberty to be accorded to one man that is not allowed to another. This is the great work of the Republican party, the beacon light by which we steared through years of war and blood. We have just reached the point, shall we now turn back? [Cries of "no! no!" Then let us elect our ticket, think of the past but to stimulate us to enter into this work with hearts and hands, and help the Republican party to reconstruct this disorganized state, to bring back the truant and prodigal to his father's house, and build up a solid government that will rise in strength and be as perpetual as the earth's revolutions around the noon day sun, and as bright and glorious as the silver moon and stars that shine above your heads, and on the grave of your friends, kindred and children, whose bodies moulder in dust. Make a firm resolve to stand by the Republican party. If you fail to do this, the blood of Abraham Lincoln will cry out unto you from the cold ground, and the corpsed fingers of three hundred and fifty thousand brave soldiers will point at you with derision and scorn for neglecting to. cherish a blessing by them so dearly

SULTS

This practice is one of the worse vice that journalists can indulge in It not only argues an amount of depravity which disqualifies a man for the respect and confidence of his fellows, it shakes and destroys popular confidence in such editoral integrity, and it encourages a disposition for the circulation of scandal It is deplorable that this practice prevails to such an extent among the Democratic dailies of New Orleans; and that too in matters and qualities that demand the utmost scrupulousness and honesty in dealing with character and with men.

For instance a man hitherto en joying the confidence and respect of his neighbors and his fellows thoroughly under the tongue of good report, is selected on account of known and approved qualities, as a representative in some official capacity; and forthwith the city editors not the paragraphists, net the sensational contributors, not the police, or the gossip reporters, but the editors proper, the men who are supposed to act with caution and deliberateness, lend willing ears and promptly use facile pens in the vilification of private character in the robbing a man of his good name, purely and exclusively on exparte accusations, on the malicious and false representation of some unscrupulous partizan, with as little scruple as they would crush a gnat. Now, such conduct must frequently meet with refutation and execration and involve the perpetrators in the loss of popular respect in the integrity of the Press. It also produces another evil, it encourages a disposition to resort to any means for the defeat

The Democracy in the Southern States may, and possibly have, effected secretly the same kind of organization for the purpose of taking possession of the polls, as was done in that State at the last election, and thus depriving Republicans of the privilege of casting their ballots. BRILLIANT RECEPTION PARTY.

Passing down Derbigny street from Canal street on Thursday night, your attention would have been arrested by an array of carriages, the dazzling brilliancy of first speaker, Hon. John A. Bingchandeliers, an assemblage of curious observers, and the sounds of the sweetest music of the season.

Approaching you would find the residence of Lieutenant Governor Pinchback the scene of all this display, and in his spacious parlors ou would have found asse one of the most numerous, tastily dressed and respectable asse New Orleans affords. On enquiring the meaning of all this, you would have learned that it was a reception party given by Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Pinchback to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Speech of Lieutenant Governor Pinchback, at a Mass Meeting in Gretna, October 29.

Mr. Pinehback said that he had not come there to speak for himself or any undividual man, but was seeking the perpetuation of Republican rule in this country, the perpetuation of that party of civil liberty and promote the averaged the number system.

another. All of which was contrary to the principles of the Republican party, and the interest of our State.

It could not be said whether they would now pass such laws, but the safest way to prevent such things was to keep such men out of power. The colored people could not afford to allow the Democrats to get into power now; it would impede their liberties for fifty years to come. He did not mean to say that they would put the colored people back into slavery; that could not be done, as the war had buried the last issue of slavery, and there was no fear of their ever being

But what we want is equal rights and equal justice before the law; the extinguishing of that damnable prejudice which is yet lingering in the hearts of so many of our white fellow-citzens.

and say to us that they will employ the same means against us now to ride them into power that they charge us with unjustly using two years aga? They have now laid aside that sense of honor have now laid aside that sense of honor and honesty which they claimed two years ago, and taken up that which they then claimed to be dishonest and corrupt for no other purposes than corrupt for no other purposes than to ride themselves into power. This is why we say it is simply a squabble on their part for the offices. They say they have Governor Warmoth on their side this time and. I am afraid they have. I have always claimed that those were good laws, if wisely administered and do so yet; but they are bad laws in the hands of a bad Executive. The Democrats go on the principle that two wrongs make a right. I can better illustrate this by telling you a little anecdote about an old hen. She was a very proud old hen and a very fruitful hen—laid eggs without number, and prided herself on her fine large eggs. But one day she chanced to come across a turkey's nest and was satisfied she had never laid any such eggs as those. So she went back to her nest determined to lay an egg like one of those. So she went on to the nest and strained and worked, and at last she succeeded in laying an egg like one those strained and worked, and at last she suceeded in laying an egg like one those she saw in the turkey's nest, but its split her wide open. Now this is the way with the Democracy. They had prided themselves on their success in the management of government affairs but they chanced to meet Gov. Warmoth, and were astonished. They had no such a man as this, and they, like the old hen made up their minds to have him, and I fear they have got him. But mind what I tell you he will split them wide open. (Loud cheers and laughter.) Now we claim that the Republican ticket that represents the people and the Republican party the only party that represents the true interests of all classes. They guarantee equal rights before the law and equal privileges in the public schools.

Mr. Pinckback closed by an earnest appeal to the Republicans to stand hand in hand and shoulder to shoulder, and come out to the polls and der, and come out to the polls and vote to a man to perpetuate the Re-publican party in power. Mr. Pinch-back retired amid lond cheers.

THE COLORED NAVAL CADET, recenty appointed to the Academy at Annapolis, has already joined his comrades, and on Monday sat at the dinner table with the white midshipmen. The fact that he was not insulted has been thought worthy of especial comment by a part of the press. There was however, no reason to suppose that the mere fact of his dark skin would subject him to annoyance from his fellowmidshipmen. The negro sailor is often found both in our naval and merchant service, and he is never treated with injustice or contempt on account of his color. The pre-judice of color vanishes when black men and white men confront to gether the perils of the sea, and the white man who, were he a day la-borer on shore, would very probably decline to work with a black man Mother Club and Sub-Clubs of this Ward forgets the latter's color when at for concurrence, and that the above be published in the National Republican and much more likely to find his situation a pleasant one, than would have been the case had he gone to Acting President. NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

Harper's Bazar contains, besides pic tures, patterns, etc., a variety of matter of especial use and interest to the family articles on health, dress, and housekeer ing in all its branches; its editorial matter is specially adapted to the circle it is intended to interest and instruct; and it has besides, good stories and literary matter of merit. It is not surprising that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time an immense success; for semething of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and its publisher have filled the demand. The young lady who buys a single number of Harper' Bazar is made a subscriber for life,- New York Evening Post.

The Bazer is excellent. Like all til periodicals which the Harpers publish, i if so it may be called, in her own is almost ideally well edited, and the class life; she had descended the steps of of readers for whom it is intended—the the throne on which the emperor mothers and daughters in average familes cannot but profit by its good sens could not survive his downfall, and and good taste, which, we have no doubt, she died when the sentence of exile are to-day making very many homes hap dier than they may have been before the women began taking lesons in person and household and social manageme from this good-natured mentor. - The Na tion, N. Tonisianian

In the endeavor to establish anothe Republican journal in New Orleans, the proprietors of the Louisianian, propose to fill a necessity which has been long, and sometimes painfullyfelt to exist. In the transition state of our people, in their struggling efforts to attain that position in the Body Politic, which we conceive to be their due, it is regarded that much information, guidance, encouragement counsel and reproof have been lost, in consequence of the lack of a medium, through which these deficiencies might be supplied. We shall strive to make the Louisianian a desideratum in these respects. POLICY.

As our motto indicates, the Loui STANIAN shall be "Republican at all times and under all circumstances" We shall advocate the security and enjoyment of bread civil liberty, the abso lute equality of all men before the law, and an impartial distribution of honor and patronage to all who merit Desirous of allaying animosities, of obliterating the memory of the bitter past, of promoting harmony and union among all classes and between all in terests, we shall advocate the removal of all political disabilities, foster kindness and forbearance, where malignity and resentment reigned, and seek for fairness and justice where wrong and oppression prevailed. Thus united in our aims and objects, we shall conserve our best interests, elevate our noble State, to an enviable position among her sister States, by the development of her illimitable resources, and secure the full benefits of the mighty changes in the history and condition of the people and the Country, Believing that there can be no true liberty without the supremacy of law, we shall urge a strict and undiscriminating administration of justice.

TAXATION.

We shall support the doctrine of an equitable division of taxation among all classes, a faithful collection of the revenues, economy in the expenditures, conformably with the exigencies of the State or Country and the discharge of every legitimate obliga-

EDUCATION.

We shall sustain the carrying out of the provisions of the act establishing our common school system, and urge as a paramount duty the education of our youth, as vitally connected with their own enlightenment, and the second ity and stability of a Republican FINAL

By a generous, manly, independent and judicious conduct, we shall strive te rescue our paper, from an ephem eral, and temporary existence, and astablish it upon a basis, that if we cannot "command," we shall at all events "deserve" success.

s ihterchangeable, like a Springfield rifle hat is, any part of one Watch is exactly like the same part in another; and if ten Watches of one grade were taken apart, and the screws, wheelt, springs, &c., were mixed together, ten watches could be made by patting these parts togel again, withuot any reference former combination. This is a

GREAT ADVANTAGE: For, it any part of a Waltham Watch injured we can always replace it at a Trifling Expense.
